

-3-

CALENDAR OF EVENTS 2016–2017
Guild meetings: 2nd Tuesday of the month
10:00 a.m.

Updated information about programs will be published in the Musings along with the specific details for the events listed below. Consult the Arts & Science Magazine for Museum events, activities and receptions.

Tuesday, September 12TH GUILD MEETING
Welcome Back

This is a great opportunity to see what is in store for our Guild members during the coming months. Volunteers are needed to help with the Halifax Art Festival. Get involved and bring a friend. We need YOU! Introduction of the new slate of Guild officers.

Tuesday, October 10th GUILD MEETING
Dr. Rosario Upchurch “Embrace the Sparkling Moments in Your Life and Stay Young Forever” October is Mental Health month. Dr. Upchurch will talk about great life lessons as we age. The Guild members will vote on the slate of officers this month.

Wednesday October 11th Fun Raising at Masterpiece Jewelry 1-4 pm
Check out the unique jewelry which includes estate jewelry too. Door prizes and lots of fun. Come and enjoy wine and cheese. 20% of items purchased will go to the Museum.

Saturday November 4th 10am - 5 pm
Sunday, November 5th 10 am – 4 pm
55th HALIFAX ART FESTIVAL

Our annual fundraising event brings Beach Street to life with artists, crafters, music, food and fun. Volunteers are needed for a variety of duties. We also need Books, , plastic egg cartons. Come and be a part of this great event.

HAF Chair: Andrea Pair 407-701-1184

Become a Patron of the HAF - it is an easy way to support the artists and the Museum. Special Patron Happy Hours are held on August 15th, September 12th, October 10th and the Patron reception on October 30th. RSVP to join us. Contact Patron Chair: Gloria Keay 386-453-7380

Tuesday, November 14th GUILD MEETING
John Brinkley, Founder and current Chairman of the Daytona Beach Veterans Museum and Education Center The center is located on the second Floor at TicToc on Beach Street. Mr Brinkley will speak about the role the Veteran Museum plays in the local community.

Thursday, December 9th
FAMILY FESTIVAL OF TREES at MOAS 10:30 am - 3 pm. A new twist to bring families together for a day of activities and food choices. Santa will also be present along with a Holiday boutique Cost: $ 5.00 per each child and adult. (grandparents are welcome too)

Tuesday, December 12th GUILD HOLIDAY CELEBRATION 11 am – 2 pm at MOAS.
A festive and fun holiday party for Members only. Thank you for all your support.
There will be the installation of the new Guild officers for 2018-2019.

Tuesday, January 9th

GUILD MEETING

Planetarium with Seth Mayo, Curator of Astronomy at MOAS. We will explore the universe in the completely digital planetarium, where science, art and technology blend seamlessly to create an experience that you will not forget.

Monday, February 13th

FASHION SHOW AND LUNCHEON.

11 am-2 pm

What a treat to have our annual fashion show and luncheon at the Halifax Plantation as we “Spring Forward in Fashion”.

Reservations contact: Jennie Palmer 386-236-9810

Cost: $35.00

Tuesday, March 13th

GUILD MEETING

Kathleen Hilbrandt, a Historic Woman in our Midst . Recognizing Women’s History Month brings us a World War II pilot. Kathleen will share what it was like being a woman pilot in a “Mens Only” environment during the war. Finally granted veteran’s status in 1977, Kathleen will share the details of her most interesting life.

Tuesday, April 10th

ANNUAL GARDEN PARTY AND LUNCHEON

Spring is in the air and the Brown Museum Courtyard will be bursting with color for our annual Garden Party. Selections that you can purchase and take home include potted plants, herbs, and beautiful blooming flowers.

Cost $35.00 Limit 100

Reservations contact: Marilyn Sternberg 386-585- 4047

Monday, April 23rd

CHILDREN’S MUSEUM GOLF CLASSIC

Come and “Play for the Kids” at our 8th annual Children’s Museum Golf Classic. Enjoy the day and play 18 or 9 holes on a spectacular private golf course at Plantation Bay Golf and Country Club. Registration will be at 7:30 am with a 9:00 am Tee Time followed by a luncheon and silent auction. Volunteers are needed. All Guild members and friends are invited to the luncheon and festivities. Cost of the luncheon only is $30.00

Reservation contact: Mike Armstrong 203-414-2379

Tuesday, May 8th

GUILD MEETING

Spring Thing/Fling featuring the Shenanigans, This group will surely entertain us with music and humor. You will thoroughly enjoy the group and are guaranteed to leave still chuckling.

Artful Interludes will be announced tbd for January to April, 2018