Cocktails & Creations: Black Light Paint Night

Daytona Beach, FL – The Museum of Arts and Sciences is hosting their first-ever Cocktails and Creations series on February 28, 2017.

Chip Nichols, from Paint Nite in Flagler Beach, is running the show! Take a tour of the new NASA exhibit, on loan from the NASA and the Kennedy Space Center Visitor Complex, to get inspiration for a space-themed instructed painting party under black lights. Enjoy a signature cocktail and music from DJ XXX while you let your creative juices flow!

Paint Nite was founded in 2012 by Dan Hermann and Sean McGrail. The duo was intrigued by the idea of beer and wine being served at a painting studio, so they took the idea and ran with it. Hermann and McGrail are passionate about supporting small businesses and local artists, which is why they have teamed up with local artists and businesses and have allowed them to host Paint Nites.

DJ XXX is blah blah blah

Seating is limited for this event. RSVP to the Museum by calling 386-255-0285 by February 10, 2017. This event is $35.00 for future members and $25.00 for members.
